

Toby Anne Schneider Kaulkin: I am retired and living eight months of the year in beautiful Sarasota FL, with a summer condo in Potomac, MD. My husband, Marvin Kaulkin, passed away last year. We were married for 32 wonderful years — a second marriage for each of us. We had two children each from previous marriages. We have 5 grandchildren, 2 in Maryland, and 3 in California. My brother-in-law from my first marriage, Art Meisel, (our classmate) is still great. He lives in Princeton, NJ with his wife Linda. Their three children are married and they have eight grandchildren. Art is a lawyer and is Director of the New Jersey Dental Association. He lives in Princeton, NJ with his wife Linda. Their three children are married and they have eight grandchildren. His wife Linda, an MSW, just retired from an 18 year stint as Director of Jewish family and Children's Services in the greater Princeton area, NJ. Art's older brother Donald, who was my first husband, died in 1977 and Artie and Linda and my family have stayed very close all these years. Of course when we were in high school we hadn't an inkling of what was going to happen to bring us together.
